1	This match marks the return of CEV Champions League to Trento, 616 days after the previous occasion. The last home match played in this competition by Trentino Volley (who has won the competition three times, between 2009 and 2011) was on 12 th April 2018: Trento-Civitanova 2-3, return match of the quarter-finals of the 2018 edition. That was the last defeat in a European match for Trentino Volley, who won the 2019 CEV Cup the following season, winning all ten matches played
2	This will be a special match for Uros Kovacevic. In this occasion, the 2019 European MVP will play his hundredth official match with Trentino Volley, the Club with which he won the Club World Championship in 2018 and the CEV Cup in 2019. Kovacevic has been playing in Trento since the 2017/18 season and in the 99 matches he played he scored 1.380 points (14 points per game)
3	Trentino Volley and Fenerbahce will face each other for the third time in their history; the two teams have played against each other only two times before, during the two matches of the 2017 CEV Cup semi-finals. The home match, which took place in Trento on 28th March 2017, was won by Trentino Itas for 3-0, whereas the away match, played in Istanbul on 1st April 2017, was won by Fenerbahce (3-2).
4	The one that will start on Thursday will be the fourteenth participation of Trentino Volley to a European cup. The match against Fenerbahce is going to be its 125th European match, and the 85th in Champions League, a competition in which it has won 66 times. It has lost just five times at home out of 37 matches played at the BLM Group Arena.
5	Before this match, the last opponent Trentino Volley has faced in a European cup has actually been a team from Istanbul: Galatasaray, which has been defeated 3-2 in Istanbul for the returning match of the Final of 2019 CEV Cup, on 26th March 2019.

Quote:

Angelo Lorenzetti (Trentino Itas): "We have put a lot of effort to have the possibility of participating to 2020 CEV Champions League, in the last season and now we want to live this occasion we have obtained to the fullest. We know that it will not be easy, because we will face strong opponents in Pool A, starting from the reigning champions of Civitanova but also Fenerbahce itself. To have access to the next round we must obtain maximum points also in an opening match such as this".
