MATCH PREVIEW

TRENTINO RELY ON HOME ADVANTAGE AFTER THE TIE BREAK BATTLE IN POLAND IN THE FIRST ROUND OF CEV CUP SEMIS

Saturday night TRENTINO will face Zaksa Kedzierzyn-Kozle for the return match of the CEV CUP Semis. The Italians have a little advantage, as they won 3-2 the match in Poland, but they need in any case to gain the victory in order to claim the ticket for the final stage of the 2015 CEV Volleyball Cup.

THE LATEST FROM ENERGY T.I. DIATEC TRENTINO Trentino Volley dreams to reach for the fourth time in the last seven years an European Cup Final. This time the team of Radostin Stoytchev will fight for a spot in the Final Match of the CEV Cup Men. Thanks to the victory in Poland, the guys captained by captain Emanuele Birarelli needs to win the regular match or, in case of loss, the team can catch the FINAL only claiming the golden set. TRENTINO will show up with their complete roster; the Bulgarian headcoach can count on his best players.

In the Polish team plays the TRENTINO´s former player Kay Van Dijk, who last year scored 52 points in 9 matches. Together with the middle blocker Kooy is the most insidious opponent.

IN THE WORDS BY... “After the match played in Poland it is clear that the the technical and tactical level of both teams are similar – stated Radostin Stoytchev - . We would make a big mistake then thinking we had already accomplished the hardest part of our task winning at the Azoty Arena. We expect a tough game, our performance in service and block must be more effective than we did in Kedzierzyn-Kozle. Fortunately we can count on our home court and our fans. PalaTrento gives us always an extra boost.” In fact, in this season the ENERGY T.I. Diatec Trentino has always won at home (16 wins and 16 matches) allowing the opponent to play the tie break in only two occasions (against Treia in Super League and against Roeselare in CEV Cup)

REFEREES ENERGY T.I. Diatec Trentino – Zaksa Kedzierzyn-Kozle will be refereed by the international staff: the first referee, the German Benedikt Geukes and the second one Alexandros Mylonakis from Greec.

MEDIA - The match will be broadcasted live from 8.30 pm by the local Radio Dolomiti and on CEV partner site www.laola1.it with the live streaming.
