MATCH PREVIEW

THIS EVENING TRENTINO DIATEC AND ENERGY INVESTMENTS LUGANO BATTLE IN PALATRENTO FOR PROVISIONAL LEADERSHIP IN POOL D

Trento, Italy, October 30, 2013

The world bronze medalists of TRENTINO Diatec will play Switzerland's Energy Investments LUGANO on Wednesday (starting time 8.30 pm) in PalaTrento for the second round of action in Pool D of the 2014 CEV DenizBank Volleyball Champions League. As these sides scored a win in the previous leg, the leadership of the group will be at stake via a match that could already impact on their chances of making it to the Playoffs 12.

THE LATEST FROM TRENTINO DIATEC After winning their opening match against BERLIN Recycling Volley last week and their first match in the Italian League, the Italians want to show again that, despite of their young age, they are in good shape and extra motivated to win this second home match.

By combining the semi-final match of the FIVB Club World Championship, the Italian Supercup, the national league and the prelims of the CEV Volleyball Champions League, TRENTINO Diatec has claimed six of eight matches. Head coach Serniotti can rely on all his players; the American setter Suxho is also back after a knee injury.

IN THE WORDS BY... "Our calendar does not allow us any breaks, on the contrary we have to face important matches - says the coach of the Trentino Volley Roberto Serniotti - . The next one against Lugano is also not to underestimate, because they play with enthusiasm and they come from an important victory in the previous leg. We should find the physical energy and the mental attitude to bring back home another 3 points, to fly much more relaxed to Izmir. It will be not easy, but we have the abilities to do that".

REFEREES Trentino Diatec – Energy Investments Lugano will be refereed by the international staff: the first referee, the Polish Pawel Burkiewicz and the second one Georgios Georgouleas (Gre).

MEDIA - The game will be broadcasted live by Italian local Radio Dolomiti starting from 8.30 pm.
