2023 CEV Champions League, Pool D, Leg 1
Trentino Itas-Decospan Vt Menen
Pre Match Press Release

1. After the second place conquered during the last season, Trentino Itas is back as a candidate for the 2023 CEV Champions' kick-off, with new ambitions and the will to continue to amaze its fans. Trentino Volley's twelfth participation in this competition will start on Thursday, after 3 victories (2009, 2010, 2011) and just as many second places (2016, 2021, 2022).
2. It is no news for Trentino Volley to start its Champions League experience at home against a Belgian team (as it will happen on Thursday); it already happened in the 2016 edition. The event beforehand was on November 5th 2015, with a 3-0 victory against Noliko Maaseik, who was the first opponent even in the 2018 edition (this time in Belgium), hosting the opening match played on December 5th 2017 and won 3-1.
3. In its eleven previous participations in the CEV Champions League, Trentino Volley has always debuted with a victory, except for last time, when it was defeated 3-0 in Perugia on December 2nd 2021. On eight occasions, the debut took place at home, as will also be the case in this edition.
4. During its long European campaign, which began in 2004 with the participation in the Top Teams Cup and continued over the years in the CEV Cup and Champions League, Trentino Volley had never competed against Decospan Vt Menen. The only teams from Belgium already faced are Maaseik (8 times), Roeselare (4) and Asse-Lennik (2); the overall balance against teams from this nation is absolutely positive: 14 victories in as many official matches.
5. For the season's debut in the Champions League, coach Angelo Lorenzetti can rely on the entire roster at his disposal, including Belgian middle-blocker Wout D'Heer, who, however, has never played with the Menen jersey in his career.

Angelo Lorenzetti (Trentino Itas Head Coach): "We are in the same group as Kedzierzyn-Kozle's reigning champions, so the goal must be to collect the most points in any match in order to aspire to the Play Offs qualification. We will try to do that already on Thursday evening in the home match against Menen, a Belgian team that should not be underestimated".

Frank Depestele (Decospan Menen Head Coach): "It's the first time in history Decospan Menen qualified for the Champions League. We have nothing to lose, but obviously we will do our utmost to perform at our best. The start of this season was difficult so far, so our European campaign will be a good opportunity to grow to a higher level. With both finalists of last season in our pool, our ambition is to enjoy as much as possible and to give our audience three fantastic evenings in our home games. We are all very much looking forward to it".
